Oregon Animal Control Council

Oregon Animal Control Council

The Oregon Animal Control Council was created in 1974 as a non-profit organization consisting of Animal Control-Animal Welfare agencies from all around the state of Oregon. The Animal Control Council is here to help supply knowledge, experience and assistance to agencies (or the general public) who need assistance in reference to Animal Control.

Who should attend?

This conference is designed for county and municipal Animal Control Officers, Animal Welfare Officers, Humane Investigators, and Shelter staff from throughout the State of Oregon. The training is also beneficial for Police Officers and Sheriff's Deputies who routinely handle animal calls.

Schedule of Classes

- Fostering Evidence Animals.
- New Legislation Review
- Grant Writing for a Government Agency
- Domestic Violence and Animal Abuse.
- Horse Abandonment Issues
- Public Relations

(Note: classes may change without notice)
